

Dear {Student First Name},

Each semester, instructors are asked to provide the academic advising offices information about how well each student is performing. Your instructor, Professor {Faculty Last Name}, is concerned that you might be in danger of failing in

{Course Name with Section and Title}

Based on your progress so far and without a substantial change in your work, you might be in danger of failing. Please connect with your instructor during his/her office hours, schedule an appointment or meet with the TA for your section as soon as possible to discuss your performance.

Sincerely,

KSAS Academic Advising Office
